CHAPTER 399

AN ACT to create section 926—11f of the statutes, authorizing the common council of any city to appoint a fiscal agent.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 926—11f. The common council of any city, in order to facilitate the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds, is hereby authorized to appoint a fiscal agent in some city or cities outside of the state of Wisconsin. Such fiscal agent shall be an incorporated bank or trust company duly authorized by the laws of the United States or of the state in which such city is located to do a banking or trust company business. At no time shall there be more than one fiscal agent in a city, nor shall there be at one time a fiscal agent in more than two cities in the United States. The treasurer of any such city is hereby authorized and directed to deposit such sums of money for the payment of principal and interest of bonds with such duly appointed fiscal agent or agents of the city as and when he is instructed to do so by written communication from the common council of such city.
